

Kooheji Jewellery participates in Jewellery Salon

(words 276)

Kooheji Jewellery is glad to return this year to the 7th Jewellery Salon exhibition in Saudi Arabia set to take place on the 11th to 14th April at the Hilton Hotel Jeddah and in Riyadh on the 18th to 21st of the same month at Al Faisaliah Hotel from 4pm to 11pm.

Marking its fourth participation in the annual event, Kooheji Jewellery returns this year to the exhibition joining some of the most important jewellery designers and global and local jewellery companies in the world. The jewellery house's previous participation was met with much praise as elegance and sophistication characterized last year's pavilion. This year, Kooheji returns with an equally distinctive pavilion designed creatively with a unique assortment of jewellery and precious stones, chosen specifically to suit the taste and needs of Saudi women, whom are known globally for their interest in the acquisition of all-new luxury and precious jewellery and watches. The collection will include a selection of unique and exclusive pieces from Kooheji and renowned designers picked specifically for the exhibition and its customers in Saudi Arabia, in addition to luxurious wedding sets and engagement rings available for visitors at special rates.

It is worth mentioning that Kooheji Jewellery, since its first branch opening in 1952 in the eastern region of Saudi Arabia, has been always keen on being present in the Saudi gold market and all events and exhibitions that interest its customers from the area such as The Jewellery Salon exhibition which is considered one of the most prestigious exhibitions in the Kingdom with well-known personalities and top jewelers and collectors of gems and precious stones visiting from all around the world.
